

BLIND

(Stephane LEBOURG)

We've got so many things to learn from you
Tips and tricks I wanna know
Hiding places I never knew
'n that's where I'd like to go
You know I have faith in you
I know you will do fine
Than to see you kneel down, Oh
I'd rather be blind

And you often recognize me
You knew my dad and mum
Away from you, how could it be
I'm living in an asylum
It's a long long story between you and me
I try to follow the line
Than to see you away from me
I'd rather be blind

I'd rather be blind

You complain about me, guy
But you don't know who I am
I never cheat, I never lie
So take me as I am
Get the right mix between the sheep and the lion
A happy medium to find
I'm looking for the truth, with good intentions
And you're running out of time

I'd rather be blind

Things will never be the same
Life is a lie
I don't like the game
So, you know why

I'd rather be blind
